TrendSet Winter 2024: First trade fair date of the year for Living & Giving with the Interiors & Lifestyle Trends for Spring/Summer 2024!

Fresh trends in the new year: At the start of the year, TrendSet in Munich will once again be the first Interiors & Lifestyle trade fair to show what's coming in the new season. At TrendSet Winter 2024 from January 6 to 8, manufacturers, designers and retailers will present the latest products for spring/summer 2024 and Easter.

At the beginning of January, it's "Discover the new products at TrendSet" again! For three days - Saturday, Sunday and Monday - the industry will meet in Munich to present and order the latest trends from the Live & Give, Cook & Eat, Decorate & Create and Work & Play segments for Spring/Summer 2024 and Easter 2024. At the first Interiors & Lifestyle trade fair of the year, trade visitors from the retail, wholesale, online retail, hotel and catering sectors will have an early opportunity to discover and directly order the latest collections in living, dining, leisure and giving for the coming season and the next Easter.

In 6 exhibition areas, which are divided according to product ranges, exhibitors from around 40 countries of the world will show with their more than 1,800 brands and collections which trends await us in the Interiors & Lifestyle sector in the spring. Some companies also already have preview articles for fall/winter 2024.25 with them, which can be ordered directly at the fair. In the 15 Interiors & Lifestyle Fair Areas and the three Topic Areas TrendSet Newcomer, TrendSet Fine Arts and TrendSet Bijoutex, trade visitors will be guided simply, clearly and specifically through the exhibitors' ranges. The TrendSet Topseller Area is back again, where exhibitors present their most successful products of the season directly at the West Entrance.

The next TrendSet is already set: TrendSet Summer 2024 will take place in Munich from July 6 to 8, 2024.
